This may certify whom it concerns that Joseph Avodio — Native of Mount Libanus in Syria attended the Comissioners for relieving Poor Proselytes from the Church of Rome at their Meeting in St. Pauls Chapter House 9. Novr. 1727. being recomended to them as an Object of their Charity. That upon Examination it appear'd by several Certificates which he produc'd, that he was Educated in the Communion of the Maronites at Mount Libanus who in all respects are Papists excepting that by a dispensation from the Pope they are allow'd to have their Service in the Syriac Language: That this Duty calling him into Europe he observ'd so much indevotion and Superstition among the Papists, and a contrary behaviour among the Protestants particularly at Nuremberg in Germany as gave him occasion to enquire into their Principles, and finally to joyn — himself to the Protestant Churches at Amsterdam. That thereupon the Comissioners did order the undernamed to give him some present Relief, which was accordingly done, but the Comission for that purpose being soon after resign'd, he could have no further — assistance from it. Witness my hand this 7.th Day of January 1731/32.

Agreed Agreed that they be put into the hands of the Marquis Du Quêne, The Honble Mr Bonet, Mr Chamberlayne, Mr Dolins, Mr Gunstone, and Mr Newman.

The Committee resumed the Consideration
Reported 4th Sept of the business of Mr Malard, and Mr Chamberlayne laid before them an Extract from the Libel of said Malard, prepared by him at their desire, which was read, and being reduced to three heads are as follow. 1 That the design of the said Malard is to render the French Refugees odious to all the Englishmen of the Established Church, by insinuating that the said French are mostly Presbiterians or encouragers of that Sect, and that they hate him the said Malard and the rest of the Proselytes, because they are such fast friends to Episcopacy &c. Which is a stale and usual Stratagem of Papists to divide Protestants.
2. He charges the French Refugees (which is almost a Contradiction in Terms) with being Favourers of Popery, Spyes for the French King Vicious and Corrupt in their Morals &c.

3. He all along accuses them of entring into a Confederacy of Starving him and the most substantial Proselytes as he calls them, such as Delpeche, Alvarado &c, and of a Design of dividing their Pensions among themselves tho' it be notorious that the whole sum of the 15-000 allowed by Parliament was originally designd for the Refugees only. To supports which heads he refers to some of the most remarkable Passages in the Libel Mark'd with a + or NB which Passages were also read; and Mr Malard having Asserted in his Libel that the Proselytes have never been employed in the French Churches here, agreed that Mr Fonvive, and Mr d'Equlhon be desired to procure a List of such French Proselytes who have been employed in Preaching and reading Prayers &c and lay it before the next Meeting of the Commissioners

Messrs Flahaut, Treval, Legois & Pinna attending as desired by the last Committee, they were called in and examined

Mr. Flahaut affirmed that he did not sign or cause to be signed the Petition to his Grace of Canterbury in behalf of the Commissioners either by Threats or Promises or at the instigation of any of the Commissioners but voluntarily and of his own Accord.

Mr Treval affirmed that what Mallard said of him page 2 of the Advertizement is false, that he never told Mallard he signed the Petition because Mr Romelliere had subscribed it, he having signed it long before Mr. Romelliere and promised so to do before it was engrossed. Treval further affirmed that Mallard came to him and shewed him a Petition against the Commissioners which he desired him to subscribe, but he refused it, telling Malard that Mr. Romilliere had subscribed a Petition contrary thereto, of which he offerd to take his Oath.

Mr. Legois denied the Assertion of Malare concerning the Marquis de Rochegude Page 29, and said the same is grossly misrepresented for that the Marquis de Rochegude only told him when he — recommended a Proselyte to his Favour &c that many of the Proselytes had behaved themselves unworthy of the Charity that was given them

Mr. Sinna said he never spoke to Malare upon any Account.

The Committee thereupon Agreed as their Opinion that Mr. Malard be informed the Comm^ee do expect he recal the Copies of his Libel which are dispersed and that he deliver up all those that are — undisposed of to their Messengers and make a Publick recantation of the many Falsities therein contained and also that he acquaint the Commissioners who abetted and Assisted him in publishing the same.

Agreed 4 Sept.

The Committee being informd that Mr. Malard (tho Summond) did not attend, for fear as he pretended of being Arrested.

Ordered that Mr. Malard do attend the General Meeting the first Wednesday in September at Young Man Coffeehouse & that he be acquainted it is in the Verge of the Court and consequently a Priveledged Place.

S^r John Philipps, M^r Newman.

M^r Degulhon having given a Narrative of the Usage he has met with from M^r Malard of his having arrested him by the name of John Degulhon in an Action of thirty pounds in the Court of Marshalsea, to which he has given in Bail, that finding he had mistaken his Christian name in the first writ, he had obtained a second writ to arrest him by the name of Stephen Degulhon, to which he had also given Bail. That M^r Rolfe an Attorney had brought a writ of habeas Corpus to bring the first Action from the Marshalsea to the Common Pleas. M^r Bulstrode acquainted the Committee that it was not advisable to take the Action out of the Marshalsea Court, where the Matter would be dispatched in a short time and at less Expence than in the Common Pleas, and that if M^r Rolfe would call on him he would instruct him in the Method he is to take to defend M^r Degulhon, and to bring the Matter to a speedy Issue.

Ordered that M^r Vandersteghen & M^r Du Jarry do attend the Comm^e at their next Meeting, and that Du Jarry do in y^e mean time stop Proceedings ag^t Vandersteghen, But in case of his refusal, that M^r Vandersteghen do put in Bail next Court day in the Marshalsea Court.
